

FOR ALL STUDENTS:

- Desire to honor God above all else
- Sweet attitude toward others
- Submissive spirit toward authority
- Patience and understanding with others
- Best effort for God's glory
- Self-control
- Godly friend choices
- Being a good influence on their friends
- Protection and safety (including physical and spiritual)
- Purposefully develop a biblical worldview
- Not be a slave to social media, technology, phones, etc

JUNIOR HIGH AND HIGH SCHOOL:

- Desire to honor God and walk consistent with their faith, to walk worthy
- An awareness of being an ambassador of Christ
- Developing godly friendships and relationships
- Wisdom
- Resist temptation and a desire for purity (thoughts, online and physically)
- Respond well to pressure and hardships (academics, relationships, tests)
- Live in joy and freedom, not anxiety and worry
- Safety (at school, during athletics, while driving)
- Respect their teachers and authority in school
- Focus on academics as they prepare for life
- Be committed to sharing the Gospel as they have opportunities
- Accept the learning process as part of God's plan for their life
- Not be a slave to social media, technology, phones, etc

COLLEGE:

- Live out their Christian faith in word and actions to those around them
- Remain committed to God's truth while interacting with differing belief systems
- Love the learning process as part of God's plan for their life
- Love the gift of the local church and its gatherings, accountability, and its service to one another amidst the pressures of a typical college student life
- A strong desire to fight sin and temptation – especially among others re: sex and lust
- For growth and maturity, spiritually and in general life wisdom
- For strong friendships and future godly spouses
- Biblical understanding of biblical manhood and womanhood
- Doing one's best for the glory of God (not settling for low expectations)
- Travel safely
- School related finances and future job/career prospects

PARENTS:

- Know the gospel, preach it to themselves daily, and rely on God's grace at all times
- Wisdom and discernment with what's going on in their children's lives
- Develop and model a heart for Christ
- Wisdom to build opportunities to get into the child's life
- Awareness of the voices of influence in the child's life

- Ability and discernment to help the child critique culture
- To know when and how to engage the child
- Godly response to authority (school, government, teachers, coaches, etc)
- Give God honoring tools to their children to navigate the pressures, troubles, pains and successes in life
- Model a life of faith that is not dominated by worry, an overly-critical spirit, anxiety, or fear

TEACHERS:

- Wisdom in preparation (content, time management, various delivery methods)
- Gracious discipline toward students
- Patience with strugglers (with getting the content, with life in general)
- Handle stress in a godly manner
- Purity with other teachers (friendships, attitude)
- Choosing to be a mentor to the children as the children watch them
- Kindness, tenderheartedness, and love
- Provide them an eye and heart for the strugglers
- Ambassadors of Christ wherever they are
- Clear headed, God honoring interactions with parents; parents who support their classroom

ADMINISTRATORS:

- God honoring relationship with all levels of school authority
- Lead by godly example
- Exhibit servant leadership
- Engage others with general grace
- Empathy with parents
- Wisdom related to curriculum
- Compassion for district and school families and the hurting
- Patience
- Christ-centered perspective as they lead
- Creativity and wisdom for the moment, in crises, in conflict, in problem solving, etc
- Strength, perseverance, courage, and endurance

HOMESCHOOL FAMILIES:

- Honor God – toward each other in the home
- Be a student of the Word every day
- Wisdom for curriculum choices and extracurricular activities
- Diligent and self-disciplined (parent and children)
- Manage time well (parent and children)
- Heart for learning (parents who must stay ahead in the curriculum)
- Patient and wise planning
- Encourager to other homeschoolers or those who may have questions
- Wisdom in regards to Co-ops (leadership, organizational challenges, building complications)
- Set to develop their children into excellent students, life long learners, pace setters in all areas of life, wise servants of our King, and to understand there is no sacred or secular- all of life is God's

