

Gospel Thinking, Gospel Living

Titus 2:11-15

October 11, 2026 | Pastor Joe

God's grace doesn't simply rescue us from sin; it teaches us how to live as people who belong to Him. In Titus 2:11–15, Paul shows how the grace of God shapes us in the present while we wait with hope for the return of Jesus Christ.

1. How does knowing someone believes in you affect the way you live?

LOOKING AT GOD'S WORD

Read Titus 2:11–15 together in the NIV.

2. What does Paul say God's grace has done, is doing, and will do?
3. What does Paul tell believers to say "no" to and to say "yes" to as they live in the present age?
4. What are believers waiting for according to verses 13–14? What does Jesus' return have to do with the way we live now?

DIGGING DEEPER

5. Paul says that God's grace "teaches us." What do you think grace teaches us about the kind of life God wants us to live?
6. Why do you think Paul connects giving up ungodliness with living self-controlled, upright, and godly lives?
7. How can looking forward to Christ's return change the way we approach ordinary life today?

LIVING IT OUT

8. Where do you most need God's grace to teach and reshape the way you live right now?
9. What is one ungodly attitude, desire, or behavior you need to say "no" to? What would saying "yes" to godliness look like instead?
10. How can the hope of Jesus' return encourage you to live differently this week?
